President's Message

William H. Taft once said, "The man with the average mentality, but with control, with a definite goal and a clear conception of how it can be gained, and above all, with the power of application and labor, wins in the end." Great advice then and even greater advice today!

Don't forget to renew your KBOT dues before March 1st, 2010.

Not only will you have to pay a $10 late fee after that date, but you will also miss out on being included in the new Akron Boards of Trade Council Business Directory. The ABOTC Directory will be given for FREE to every paid member of the ABOTC (Kenmore is one of six boards in this group), and listed on the ABOTC's web site at www.akronbotc.com. Please contact John Buntin Jr at 330-745-5530 or john@kenmore-komics.com to advertise or for any additional information.

Attention... Attention... Attention...

February General Meeting – Is 02.02.10 at Goss Memorial Church - 2247 11th St SW, Kenmore 44314. Our guest speaker is Councilman Mike Freeman of the city of Akron. He will discuss the current plans for Akron & Kenmore. A Social will start the meeting off at 5:30 pm. The cost is $5. Heavy appetizers & beverages will be provided. A few of our board members will be featuring some of their fabulous food: Reeves Cake Top Shop will be making tasty cookies, Pierre's Pizza will have Hot Dog Rolls & Apple Crunch Dessert Pie (oh so good), and there will be Regina's Pizza chicken wings and Subway's Subs. Anyone hungry yet? Directly following our meeting will be Councilman Mike Freeman's Ward 9 meeting at the Kenmore Senior/Community Center (directly next door).
