PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In 2014, we lost three Kenmore Board of Trade past and present Board Directors & Officers.

Etta Mae Smith passed away on February 17th. She owned and operated her own dance studio for 64 years. She choreographed the musicals, choir and madrigals at Kenmore High School for decades. She was a Kenmore activist. Who is going to take up her mantle?

Lee McCutchan passed away on May 9th. She was active with the Kenmore Board of Trade, Kenmore Kiwanis, Akron Boards of Trade Council, Kenmore Historical Society, First Glance Student Center, Kenmore Friends of the Library, and many Senior Groups. She was a Kenmore activist. Who is going to take up her mantle?

David Holliday passed away on May 19th. He was a recent member of the Kenmore Board of Trade and was the Vice President. He was a visible person on the Boulevard. Who is going to take up his mantle?

We will keep them in our remembrance.

David E. Culbertson, President
